Here Comes the Sun!

It's summertime! School is out. Activities are done until September. Meetings and clubs are taking a break. Now we have all this time and daylight—but what do we do with it?

Well, the library is taking a break from our regular programs too, but we have many great summer-only programs and events happening! For the kids there is the TD Summer Reading Club every week here at the library and Tuesday to Friday mornings there is Book Blast at local parks. (Check page 2 for schedule.) For adults we have the Farm to Home Talks and Tasting Event for those looking for way to incorporate locally grown foods into their everyday. PRAMP is back with workshops on vermiculture and papermaking. Project Peace and PRRWS are presenting a variety of workshops and activities. Then we will end off the summer with the Waste Not Clothes Swap and the Back to School Supplies Exchange.

The library will be closed on Saturdays from July 1st through September 2nd but it is not from a lack of things to do!
