Happy New Year!

Excuse my enthusiasm. I know that 2020 was... what's the term I've heard all over the internet? Oh yes, it has been a dumpster fire of a year. But things are looking up. I am working from home as I write this and I can see a nuthatch looking for bugs in the spruce tree outside my window. Other benefits include yoga pants and bare feet but let's take a look at this little bird. If I had been at the Library today, I would have missed seeing Mr. Nuthatch looking for lunch. It was a needed reminder that no matter what is happening in the realm of people, the world moves forward. The year 2020 will end and 2021 will begin and we too will move forward. Just don't forget to return your library books!
