Back to ... Everything

Even if you don't have school-aged kids in your home, there is something special about "back-to-school time". We've had our summer break from routine and it's time to get back to our regular pattern of life. Whether it's work, sports, clubs, volunteering, or other programs, now is when things all start anew.

It's time to get back to what you are used to but also an opportunity to try something new! We are very spoiled in our community with the selection of programs and events available to us. The library staff are looking forward to bringing back some old favourites as well as trying some brand new ideas! Some older programs have been shaken up and given a make-over but they are still the programs you remember and love. Just think of it as getting that back-to-school haircut to feel fresh and current.

Whether you are looking for the comfort of something familiar or the excitement of something new, we have you covered!
